Guest Jubilee Lecturer—Dr. Lalchungnunga

Dr. Lalchungnunga, principal of Serampore College, Serampore, India, is the college's guest Jubilee lecturer on "William Carey and Serampore College."

Dr. Lalchungnunga (Dr. Lal for short) is a native of Mizoram (Land of the Mizo), a predominantly Christian state in northeast India. An ordained minister in the Mizoram Presbyterian Church, Lalchungnunga holds the following degrees: B.A., Mizoram University; M.A., Gauhati University; M.Phil., Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi; Ph.D., North Eastern Hill University; and B.D., Serampore College (the Serampore College Council validates all theological degrees in India). Apart from the divinity degree from Serampore, all of Dr. Lal's degrees are in the field of political science. He has published one book, Mizoram: Politics of Regionalism and National Integration (1994), and has written a few papers for seminars.

Prior to becoming the principal of Serampore College in 1999, Dr. Lal was a missionary in Delhi, 1991-1998. He is a member of the National Executive Board, All India Association of Christian Higher Education, and a member of the Evangelical Teachers Fellowship of India. He is married to Lalhliri, and they have three children, Emmanuel, Elizabeth, and Michael. Of importance to Dr. Lal is the fact that his name, Lalchungnunga, means "God is Lord above all kings."

Dr. Lalchungnunga's visit and lecture is the first such appearance by any Serampore College principal to William Carey College—what a fitting highlight of William Carey College's Jubilee Celebration!
